

A SECOND TRUST BILL.

It Is Launched In the United States Senate by Mr. Hoar.

AN ABSTRACT OF ITS PROVISIONS.

Data Called For Ament the Operations of the Anti-Trust Law—Coal Famine Resolution—Proceedings of Congress.

Washington, Jan. 7.—In the senate a resolution offered by Mr. Stewart (Nev.) was adopted, directing the committee on the District of Columbia to make inquiry regarding the wholesale and retail prices of coal in Washington, and to ascertain whether the scarcity of coal is the result of failure to ship to Washington, or whether there is any lack of prompt and efficient distribution among the people.

The resolution of Mr. Vest directing the finance committee to prepare and report a bill removing the duty on coal, went over on motion of Mr. Aldrich, Mr. Vest not being present.

The militia bill was then taken up, and Mr. Mallory spoke in opposition to the provision regarding a reserve force of trained men.

A discussion arose, participated in by Messrs. Tillman, Warren, Foraker, Spooner and Clay, over the construction to be put upon the section, the Democrats contending that the provision put into the hands of the president powers belonging to the states. The militia bill was then displaced by the omnibus statehood bill.

Senator Hoar introduced a second trust bill. It provides especially for the expediting of suits in equity brought under the provisions of the present anti-trust law. It authorizes the attorney general of the United States to file a certificate in any such case pending in any circuit court of the United States to the effect that the case is of general public importance. A copy of the papers in the case is then to be given precedence over other cases and to be assigned for hearing at the earliest practicable date. The hearing is to be before not fewer than three circuit judges, or, if there are not so many in the circuit, one district judge may be substituted. In case the judges disagree the case is to be certified to the supreme court of the United States for review. Appeals to the supreme court in the ordinary manner also are allowed.

Anti-Canteen Law Data.

Washington, Jan. 7.—At the opening of the session of the house Mr. Cooper (Wis.), chairman of the insular committee, asked unanimous consent that the bill to promote the efficiency of the Philippine constabulary be made a special order for Thursday. The request was agreed to with the understanding that two hours be allowed for general debate. A senate bill to refund certain tonnage taxes was passed. A resolution was adopted which called upon the secretary of war for the reports upon the operation of the law of Feb. 3, 1901, which prohibits the sale of beer and light wines at post exchanges.

The house then went into committee of the whole and proceeded with the consideration of the senate Hawaiian coinage bill.

The debate upon the bill was participated in by Messrs. Hill (Conn.), Shafroth (Colo.), Robinson (Ind.), Cochran (Mass.) and Underwood (Ala.). The bill was passed without division.

A senate bill was passed to grant the town of Juneau, Alaska, title to lands now used for school purposes. A resolution was adopted to request state authorities to co-operate with the census office in securing a uniform system of death registration. At 2:15 p. m. the house adjourned.

Cuban Trade Treaty.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The Cuban reciprocity treaty was considered at some length by the senate committee on foreign relations, but action upon it was postponed in order to afford an opportunity for the presentation of the views of the beet sugar industry. The committee decided to hear only one person in that interest, and it is probable that a special meeting will be held on Friday for that purpose. There was a general exchange of views upon the treaty of a nature to lead to the conclusion that the treaty will be favorably reported and without great delay.

Lacrosse, Wis., Jan. 7.—A severe blizzard is raging here. A 30-mile an hour northwest wind is blowing. The temperature is 20 degrees above, but zero or colder weather is promised. A snow accompanied the blizzard and has drifted badly. Railroads are considerably hampered by the storm.

MAJOR GLENN'S DEFENSE.

Chaffee's Order Held Authority For Application of Water Cure.

Manilla, Jan. 7.—The trial by court-martial of Major Edwin F. Glenn of the Fifth Infantry on the charge of killing several prisoners of war has been resumed. Counsel for the defense renewed the request that Generals Chaffee and Smith and other witnesses be summoned from the United States. The court refused this request for the present. It was charged by the defense that the records of the Sixth brigade, commanded by General Smith, had been tampered with, and that important documents had been abstracted. It was also declared in the argument that General Chaffee had sent a telegram to the department of southern Luzon, where Caballes' force was operating, clad in American uniforms. The text of this telegram is given as follows: "The division commander directs that, no matter what measures be adopted, information as to the whereabouts of this force must be obtained." The defense argued that his order was authority for the application of the water cure, and said that officers in the field so interpreted the order.

GERMANY'S POSITION.

Would Prefer to Adjust the Muddle Through Minister Bowen.

Berlin, Jan. 7.—That portion of the joint reply of the powers to Venezuela suggesting a settlement without arbitration only goes so far as to offer to treat for settlement out of court after the payment of cash or the giving of a sufficient guarantee for the payment of $335,000 to each power. This reservation remains as the fixed and only condition precedent to arbitration or negotiations direct for a supplementary agreement. The German government would much prefer to close up the matter by negotiations through Minister Bowen while the blockade continues, than withdraw the blockade and adjust the claims through The Hague arbitration court.

Another Spectacle at Delhi.

Delhi, India, Jan. 7.—The viceroy, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, and Lady Curzon and the Duke and Duchess of Connaught reviewed the retainers of the ruling contingents in the durbar arena. The variety of costume and paraphernalia afforded one of the most striking pictures of the durbar festivities. Contingents from all parts of Greater India participated, mostly retaining the distinctive features of their customs. The flags and other emblems of the state of Oudh were carried on camels and elephants, accompanied by armed men on stilts, while Arab irregulars danced past the viceroy to the music of their instruments. State bands, camel kettle-drums, richly caparisoned elephants and horses and agile swordsmen, many shouting battle cries, followed one another in quick succession.

Damaged by High Winds.

Omaha, Jan. 7.—Probably half a hundred buildings were more or less damaged by the gale which struck Omaha. Wires are prostrated in all directions and the city was in darkness the latter part of the night because of the damage to electric light circuits. There has been no rain or snow and the temperature is barely below the freezing point. Telephone and telegraph companies report wires down throughout Nebraska and western Iowa, with a strong gale from the northwest, causing serious interruption to communication.

Steamer Struck a Snag.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 7.—The steamer James A. Carney, plying between Mobile and points on the eastern shore of Mobile bay, struck a submerged "deadhead" in the river on her trip to Mobile, and stove a big hole in her bow. The boat began to fill rapidly, and the passengers were ordered aft on the upper deck. She soon began to sink and the captain ordered full speed on, and made to shallow water, where the Carney was beached. The passengers were transferred to tugs and brought to the city. No lives were lost.

Germany and France Keep Out.

Constantinople, Jan. 7.—Great Britain's protest against the permission granted in September last to four unarmed Russian torpedo destroyers to pass through the Dardanelles into the Black sea, under the commercial flag of Russia, will, it is believed, be followed by similar action on the part of Austria-Hungary and Italy, while Germany and France will remain aloof. Germany's position is in consonance with her traditional policy not to embarrass the porte, while France abstains from acting against the interests of her ally, Russia.

Elk River, Minn., Jan. 7.—The new Houlton block, containing Houlton's bank, the opera house, three general stores, postoffice, lodge rooms and offices, was burned. The loss is $75,000.

DESTROY COMPETITION

Would the Northern Railway Merger, Says Governor Van Sant.

HE URGES REMEDIAL LEGISLATION.

Securities Company He Holds an Ingenious Scheme to Promote Transportation Monopoly—Governor Odell on Capital and Labor.

St. Paul, Jan. 7.—In his biennial message Governor Van Sant deals exhaustively with the local controversy waging between the state of Minnesota and the Northern Securities company to prevent the alleged connection of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railway companies. After reviewing the progress that has been made by the state against the company the governor says: "The executive officers of the state are doing and will continue to do all in their power to defeat this connection. It may be that the courts will decide that the laws of one state can be evaded or violated by means of a corporation organized under the laws of another state; if so, all the benefits of the 'more perfect union,' so earnestly sought by the framers of the constitution, so much desired by all law-abiding persons, will not be realized. I have an abiding faith, however, that the laws of the state will be sustained, and that the attempt to evade them in the manner stated will be defeated."

"This Northern Securities company is the most ingenious scheme ever brought into existence to promote the transportation monopoly and stifle competition. It becomes the imperative duty of this state to adopt such additional laws as may be necessary for the proper regulation and control of such trusts."

Odell On Capital and Labor.

Albany, Jan. 7.—Both branches of the state legislature convened here, and as soon as organization was completed the governor's annual message was received and read. The governor said that for the year ending Sept. 30, 1904, new revenues amounting to $5,500,000 would be necessary. Referring to the relations between capital and labor the governor says: "I believe that wherever the necessities of life are involved in dispute between employer and employee that the power should be conferred upon those affected to apply to the courts for relief, and that no power should be possessed by either capital or labor to deprive the people of what is necessary for their welfare, but that ample authority should be lodged in the judiciary to properly enforce its mandates and that such disputes whenever they arise should not be permitted to interfere with those rights which are paramount and necessary for the well-being of the people. Proper legislation, therefore, should be accorded for this arbitration either by amendment or by the enactment of new legislation."

To Elect Successor to Vest.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 7.—Both branches of the Missouri general assembly convened, the senate being called to order by Lieutenant Governor Lee and the house by the secretary of state. Among the important matters to come before the present session of the Missouri legislature is the election of a successor to United States Senator George G. Vest, who declines to serve further. His term will expire March 3, 1903.

Wants Publicity.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 7.—In his annual message to the general assembly Governor Chamberlain suggested that every corporation organized under the laws of Connecticut and every corporation doing business in the state should be required to file annually with the secretary of state a sworn statement, which shall enable the public and interested parties to obtain all proper information.

Child Labor.

Springfield, Ills., Jan. 7.—The legislature convened and Governor Yates' message was read in both houses. The governor recommended an increase in the number of inspectors of factories and mercantile institutions, in order to properly enforce the laws regarding child labor and sweatshops.

City of Columbus has raised the fund for a McKinley memorial.

At Chicago, Albert Finkelstein and family of four were asphyxiated by gas in their home.

John Hause, 70, a wealthy retired farmer, was found dead in his huggy on a road near Collinsville, O.

The entire stock of Knowles & Gardiner's department store, Buffalo, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $150,000.

KENTUCKY'S DEBT.

War Claim Soon to Be Received From Uncle Sam to Be Used to Pay Off Redeemable Bonds.

FRANKFORT, KY., January 6.—It is more than probable that by action of Governor Beckham the redeemable bonded indebtedness of Kentucky will be completely wiped out before the end of March.

The claims of the Commonwealth against the Federal Government for $1,300,000, principal and interest of money advanced by the Commonwealth during the Civil war, have been allowed at Washington, and only the formal action of Congress is necessary for the transfer of this sum to the Treasury of Kentucky. Since it has become certain that this money will be forthcoming, numerous suggestions have been offered as to the disposition which should be made of it. Principally it has been suggested that the money should be expended in the erection of a new Capitol building.

Governor Beckham, however, who was largely instrumental in securing the allowance of the claims, will not favor the expenditure for a new Capitol. With the exception of the school debt, which is a perpetual obligation, Kentucky has a bonded interest-bearing debt of $1,000,000, in round numbers. The State Sinking Fund Trustees, consisting of the Governor, Auditor, Treasurer, Secretary of State and Attorney-General have full authority to take up these outstanding bonds with the money realized from Kentucky's war claims. Upon the Governor's recommendation the board will take this action. The Commonwealth will thus free itself from debt, still leaving a Treasury surplus of $300,000 resulting from the proceeds of the war claims, and then, when legislative action authorizes the construction of a new Capitol building funds for the purpose may be raised on more advantageous terms than those under which the present bonded indebtedness of the State was incurred.

STATE PRIMARY.

Suit to Enjoin It Was Dismissed by Judge James Cantrill.

Circuit Judge Cantrill refused to grant an injunction to restrain the holding of a State primary and dismissed the petition of Committeeman Meacham. The attorneys for Mr. Meacham asked for an appeal, which was granted.

Mr. Meacham says the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals and that other suits probably will be filed in different parts of the State by candidates who oppose the primary.

The Democratic Executive Committee will meet in a few days to hear the report of its subcommittee and to make arrangements for the primary.

NONUNION MEN'S SIDE.

Violence, Boycotting and Intimidation Alleged During the Strike.

A NUMBER OF WITNESSES EXAMINED.

Women Assert They Were Persecuted in Divers Ways—Box of Dynamite in Evidence—Strike Commission's Sitting.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—The strike commission began its work promptly. The attorneys for the nonunion miners, who have been calling witnesses to show that the union miners were responsible for the alleged lawlessness in the anthracite coal region last year, resumed the presentation of witnesses. E. C. Tiffany of Ashley, near Wilkesbarre, an outside foreman employed by the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company, was the first witness. He testified that strikers blew up a dam near the Ashley colliery with dynamite.

Robert S. Reed, outside foreman of No. 18 colliery of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company, testified that he was knocked senseless while riding on a mine locomotive which was dynamited. George W. Jasper, a coal and iron policeman, employed at Stanton colliery of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company, told of the destruction by fire of the surrounding fences of the property and the partial demolition of a trestle outside the fence.

Mrs. Thomas B. Jordon of Lost Creek, whose husband worked during the strike, testified that she was so annoyed by the strikers that she was forced to come to Philadelphia. Later, when she moved back, the persecution continued, and she was boycotted by tradesmen. Miss Maud Leiser, a schoolteacher of Springfield, Northumberland county, said she was dismissed at the instance of the strikers, because her brother was employed by the Union Coal company. Robert McCaa, an engineer employed by the Lehigh Valley Coal company, said a committee of miners attempted to have his daughter dismissed as a schoolteacher because he worked during the strike. I. E. Finch, chief of the coal and iron police of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company, produced a box of dynamite which was found on the company's tracks near Ashley.

Thomas Washalski, a clerk for Pardee & Company, testified that he was attacked by a crowd on Sept. 16, the night of his wedding, and forced to seek safety in the parochial residence. Later he took refuge in a colliery and his bride walked home, the mob refusing to allow the driver of the carriage to take her home. During the night his home was stoned. This caused Chairman Gray to remark: "What sort of a community is this, any way?"

Emanuel Leiser, father of Miss Leiser, the schoolteacher, who keeps a hotel at Maysville, said he was boycotted and the brewer refused to serve him with beer.

Battle With Robbers.

Eagin, Wis., Jan. 7.—As a result of an encounter between a posse of Eagle citizens and a gang of four burglars and safe blowers, four miles from this village, one robber was shot probably fatally, another was captured and two escaped. The robbers broke into a livery stable here and stole a horse and sleigh and started toward Mukwonago. Half an hour afterward the livery stable owner discovered the theft and started after the robbers with a party of four, overtaking them near a clump of woods and calling on them to surrender. The robbers at once opened fire, which was returned by the posse, with the result that one was heard to scream, and later on in attempting to escape fell. The man who was captured had in his possession two bottles of nitroglycerin and a complete set of burglar's tools and two revolvers.

City Work Suspended.

New York, Jan. 7.—The work of completing the repairs in the City hall, which were suspended some days ago in consequence of the labor troubles, is still held up. A motion made by the contractors in the supreme court for an order requiring Borough President Cantor to show cause why he should not be restrained from interfering with the workmen was withdrawn Monday with the understanding, it is said, that a compromise would be effected. So far, however, there is apparently no settlement in sight.

A national convention of negroes will be held in Cincinnati May 24 next, to organize a new party, to be known as the Civil Liberal party.

A MEETING of the coal operators of the State will be held in Louisville January 12th to discuss the movement to have Kentucky creditably represented at the World's Fair. The coal operators are deeply interested in the enterprise and they are expected to contribute largely to its success. Their subscriptions to the fund will doubtless be large.

The formal announcement of James B. Key as a candidate for Circuit Clerk appears in this issue. Mr. Key belongs to one of the county's old and highly respected families, and is a worthy and industrious citizen, a staunch Democrat and well qualified for the position he seeks. He has been Secretary several years of the Farmers' Mutual Aid Association, and has a large acquaintance throughout the county. His many friends will be glad to help him out in his present race, feeling confident he would make a most capable and popular official if honored with the position.

ACCIDENT CAUSED DEATH.

Mrs. James H. Hall, of Chicago, Died From Injuries Resulting From a Fall. Funeral Here This Afternoon.

The remains of Mrs. James H. Hall, of Chicago, whose death was mentioned Wednesday, arrived here on the 10 o'clock train this morning and were removed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. R. B. Lovel, where the funeral takes place at 1 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. J. C. Molloy officiating. The interment will follow in the Maysville Cemetery.

Mrs. Hall's death was caused by injuries received accidentally last Sunday night. While returning from church she slipped and fell, the back of her head striking the pavement with such force as to either fracture the skull or cause concussion of the brain. She never regained consciousness, the end coming Tuesday afternoon.

The polecat catch this season is reported the shortest in several years. There's no diminution in the scent, though, although a considerable falling off in dollars is experienced by the trappers.

THE TOBACCO TRUST.

Its Purchase of Weissinger Plant Made at Big Cost.

Scheme On Foot For a Great Joint Stock Tobacco Company to Fight Combine.

[Indianapolis Sentinel.]

The sale to the trust of the plant of Harry Weissinger, of Louisville, perhaps the leading independent manufacturer of plug tobacco in the country, has caused a great deal of comment among local cigar dealers who have made up their minds to fight the trust. It is said among them that the real terms of the sale were $2,000,000 cash, and that the real value of the Weissinger plant was less than $200,000. The prevailing theory is that the large price is due to the fact that he was in better shape to fight the trust on plug tobacco than anybody else, and that the object was to get rid of his competition.

Instead of discouraging the cigar dealers, as might have been anticipated, the sale seems to have increased the disposition to fight and the belief that an effective fight can be made against the trust. The reason of this is simple.

The deal is regarded as a confession by the trust that its vulnerable point is the plug tobacco business.

It is well known that the trust now derives its profits wholly from plug and smoking tobaccos, and that it is losing large amounts of money on cigars in its effort to get control of the trade. From Chicago, New York and Philadelphia, where independent retail dealers have discarded trust-made goods altogether, there are reports of actual improvement in business, and there is, in consequence, a belief that if independent goods can be furnished all along the line the monopoly of the trust can be broken absolutely. This has led to the suggestion of a plan which would be far-reaching in its effects, viz.—

The organization of a great joint stock company for the manufacture of plug and smoking tobaccos, on a basis that would make sale to the trust impossible.

The Weissinger sale has given a new impetus to this project, and there is a probability that it will be carried into effect very soon. It is believed that not only independent retail cigar men, but also the leaf tobacco dealers and probably the cigarmakers' unions, would take stock in such an enterprise, as it would certainly be very profitable if carried out in good faith, because all those classes would have a direct interest in pushing its goods.

Effie Ellsler, the charming and brilliant little actress who played the part of Mary Tudor in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," at the opera house last evening, is deserving of the complimentary notices given her by the press. The company was greeted here by a fine audience who thoroughly enjoyed every act of the play, and should Effie Ellsler visit this city again, the prediction is made that it will be necessary to use the sign, "Standing Room Only." The play was handsomely staged, the costumes being elegant and the scenic effects beautiful.

Mrs. Louisa Morton, of the county, was reported quite sick this week, threatened probably with pneumonia.

The Biggest Little Thing

measured by the amount of nutritive value it contains, is the fresh soda cracker. Many people think a cracker an insignificant and easy thing to make—yet no one ever succeeded in reaching perfection until Uneeda Biscuit were introduced. To maintain the quality of Uneeda Biscuit, requires the best of everything—wheat, flour, baker, and bakery.

Uneeda Biscuit furnishes every element necessary to bodily vigor; and, above all, they are fresh and clean. This is due to the In-er-seal Package—the package with red and white seal—which protects them from the air, moisture, dust, and other things not best to mention. There's a world of worry, work, skill and care in making a soda cracker like—

D. Hechinger & Co.

It does look as if the people have been waiting for our cut price sale.

Whilst at this season of the year most merchants reconcile themselves to just what happens to come along, we take an aggressive stand and hold out inducements that will make people buy despite the lateness of the winter. The public recognizes the values we give them in our Stein Bloch, Adler Bros. and Garson Meyer Clothing, all of which are now sold at 20 per cent. off from the regular price, and this accounts for the phenomenal business we are now having.

If interested in a Suit or Overcoat for yourself or boy look in every other clothing house in town before you come to us. It will not take you long to find out the cause of our house being constantly crowded with buyers.

BUY CANDIES

For the little ones, Santa Claus' visit would lose much of its importance should the sweetmeats be left off his bill of fare. But don't buy the cheap stuff, whose only title is a pretty name. Pure sugar costs more than is sometimes asked for candies of inferior grade. Our confections are invariably of the first quality. That's most important. The next thing to consider is the cost. Prices here are the lowest possible consistent with pure goods. Freshly-baked cakes of four o'clock make, Oranges, Lemons, Hanan's, Apples, Figs, Dates and other fruit for the holidays. Nuts of all sorts—strictly fresh stock of the past season's growth—no old goods on hand. Elegant assortment of fancy Sugar Toys and other Candies for Christmas tree decoration. In fact, our place is the recognized storehouse of Christmas good things. If there is anything needed to bring "good cheer" to the yuletide hearthstone, you will find it at TRAXEL'S.

PITHY POINTS.

No mouth is fit for church singing that is given to guzzling whisky.

It isn't the province of the church to harbor either whisky sellers or whisky drinkers.

The church member who won't keep out of saloons and whisky dens ought to keep out of the church.

Taylor don't care how Powers and Howard come out, or whether they get out at all: his only concern having been to "get out" himself.

No whisky seller nor whisky drinker has any qualification for church-membership, and all such ought to have sufficient modesty to withdraw.
